Categories and Classes of membership: Extract from Section 2 of Club Rules.

Full Membership: whilst primarily intended for boat owners, is available to all applicants. Such Members are entitled to full use of all of the Club's facilities and, subject to Rule 5 to hold office and, subject to Rule 10.9, to vote at an Annual or Special General Meeting. The full membership category consists of the following membership classes:

- (a) Family Membership consists of one person and his or her partner both over 18 years of age together with all of their children less than 18 years of age. Together these individuals will constitute one Family Membership;
- (b) Individual Membership consists of one person over 25 years of age;
- (c) Youth Membership consists of one person under the age of 25 years.

Associate Membership: is intended for non-boat owners and is essentially a social membership. Such members are not entitled to vote for any matter voted on at an Annual or Special General Meeting but are entitled, to hold certain offices. The Associate Membership category consists of the following membership classes:

- (a) Associate – Family Membership: consists of one person and his or her partner both over 18 years of age together with all of their children under 18 years of age, together these individuals will, subject to meeting the eligibility criteria described below, constitute one Associate – Family Membership; and
- (b) Associate – Individual Membership: consists of one person over 25 years of age who meets the eligibility criteria described below.

Associate Membership eligibility: To be eligible as either an Associate – Family Membership or an Associate – Individual Membership, those individuals:

- (a) may only own a boat or a share in a boat (including a dinghy or other craft) less than 4 m in length;
- (b) may only race as crew in a boat 4 metres or larger; and
- (c) will not be granted a dinghy locker or haulage privileges.

No more than 45% of all memberships of the Club may be Associate Memberships at any one time.

Election of Members: All applications for membership must:

- (a) be proposed by one member and seconded by another. It is preferable that the applicant be personally known by the proposer and seconder (or, in the case of a Corporate Membership, an individual belonging to the applicant is personally known by the proposer and seconder); but, in the event that an applicant has no prior acquaintance with the Club, two Flag Officers may propose and second an application.
- (b) be in writing on the Club's membership application form, signed by the applicant (to indicate the applicant's consent to become a member), proposer, and seconder; and
- (c) accompanied by the correct subscription for the relevant category of membership.

Applicants must be elected to membership by a resolution of the Managing Committee. Pending such election the applicant may make use of the Clubhouse facilities on Club evenings and other Club events. If an applicant is not elected, their subscription fee will be promptly refunded.

Information to be provided by Members: Each Member must:

- (a) provide their contact details, and details of boats where applicable, on application for membership and on any subsequent applications for race entry, hall hire or haulage;
- (b) provide any other information reasonably required by the Club from time to time; and
- (c) promptly notify the Secretary of any changes to the above information described above.

If requested in writing, such information will be made available to the Member from whom it was collected within a reasonable period of time following such request.

Changing membership status: The membership category or class may only be altered with the consent of the Managing Committee.
